

U.S. COLLEGIATE CHAMPIONSHIPS

Senior women's champion Paige Rydberg

...ranks, Rydberg said, "Being a first-year student and a competitive figure skater is not easy, but collegiate skating gave me a chance to recognize and appreciate my skating and school." She received a $1,000 scholarship.

University of California skater Audrey Lu collected the silver medal with a combined score of 159.21, her first time competing at the U.S. Collegiate Championships.

PHOTOS COURTESY OF PERKINS MEDIA

Midwest native Wren Warne-Jacobsen, an incoming freshman at the University of Minnesota, Twin Cities, captured the bronze medal with 138.32 points. The political science major received a $1,000 scholarship. "I was excited to experience the great energy of this event," Warne-Jacobsen said. "The all-around love for the sport is something unique to collegiate skating." Her program to "Red Violin Amenouzume" included a triple toe loop, a double Lutz-double Axel sequence and a closing Level 4 combination spin.

...ve Wren Warne-Jacobsen, an incoming freshman at the University of Minnesota, Twin Cities, captured the bronze medal with 138.32 points. The political science major received a $1,000 scholarship. "I was excited to experience the great energy of this event," Warne-Jacobsen said. "The all-around love for the sport is something unique to collegiate skating." Her program to "Red Violin Amenouzume" included a triple toe loop, a double Lutz-double Axel sequence and a closing Level 4 combination spin.

Senior women's medalists (l-r) Audrey Lu, Paige Rydberg, Wren Warne-Jacobsen, Ting Cui

Senior men's medalists (l-r) Goku Endo, Ryan Dunk, Luke Ferrante, Ian Kang

